

Pejman Shoeibi Omrani

TNO

Education/studies

- PhD candidate, Wageningen university and research
- MSc sustainable process and energy technology, Delft university of technology
- Honours degree in applied mathematics, computational sciences and numerical analysis, Delft university of technology

Details of current professional position

- Senior scientist energy transition, TNO

Details of current projects

- Digital twin of geothermal assets: two national projects in the Netherlands to realize and demonstrate digital twin technology in several geothermal sites in the Netherlands
- Leading several national and European projects on geothermal heating and digitalization to optimize production and operation of geothermal assets