

Steve Taylor

Scottish Development International

Education/studies

- Postgraduate qualifications in Urban Planning from the University of Strathclyde

Details of current professional position

- Trade Specialist Energy Transition based in Berlin.
- Leads Scotland's Renewable Energy Trade activities in Germany.
- Employed by Scottish Development International.
- Awarded Glasgow's inaugural Green Champion in 2014.

Details of current projects

- Focus on helping Scottish businesses enter the German market.
- Provides advice, research, and connections in hydrogen, offshore and onshore wind, and geothermal sectors.
- Since 2021, emphasizing the potential of Germany's geothermal market to Scottish companies.
- Actively involved in developing links between Scotland and Germany in geothermal and other renewable energy aspects.